Constitution of the Camp Lejeune Military Retiree CouncilPreamble

SECNAVINST 5420.169L formally directs the Retired Services Program and the Retiree Council policy for the Department of the Navy. MCO 1800.10 provides guidance for the Marine Corps, requiring installation commanders to establish Retired Advisory Committees in their geographic areas. This Order provides CG's guidance on the management of Retired Affairs Program and the CAMLEJ MRC. The CAMLEJ MRC is established to provide a means to ensure that the relationship between area retirees and the active forces is reinforced and remains mutually beneficial. It has been created as part of an overall strategy to maintain responsibility to and for military retirees. Military retirees continue to be an integral part of mobilization and contingency plans. Thus, the CAMLEJ MRC is charged with providing assistance during times of increased operational tempo and deployments, as requested by the CG MCIEAST-MCB CAMLEJ. In addition, this Council will: (1) support retiree programs which are designed to enhance force operational readiness; (2) address those quality of life issues affecting military retirees, their surviving spouses, and appropriate family members, and (3) provide a link between retired and active duty populations.

Section 5: Within two weeks of the end of their terms of office, officers will ensure that all committee records are delivered to their incumbent successors, or that these records are given to the Secretary for placement in a permanent organizational file, which is available and accessible to all officers. Documents pertaining to the Council are not the property of the individual officers and may not be withheld.

Article II

Duties of Standing Committees

Section 1: The Membership Committee:

1.1. This committee shall consist of no less than two, and no more than five, Council members to review qualifications of prospective Council members and to recommend their addition to the Council.

1.2. The Membership Chairman shall review the minutes of each Council meeting to identify those members "absent without excuse" and report to the Council the names of those members who, by virtue of unexcused absences, he/she recommends be notified that they have forfeited their Council seat. Once the Council has approved his/her recommendation to remove a Council member, and prior to the next Council meeting, the Membership Committee Chairperson will prepare correspondence for the

28 AUG 2025

Chairman's signature to notify those members being dropped from the Council, of the action being taken, and the reason for that action.

Section 2: The Issues Committee:

2.1. This committee shall consist of no less than two and no more than five Council members, appointed by the Council Chairman, and will address issues presented to the Council which fall within the purview of the Council, as discussed under Article III of the Council's Constitution. The Committee's recommended action will be presented to the Council for approval. Any correspondence developed by the Committee/Council as a result of approved recommendations will be presented by the Committee Chairman to the Council Chairman for signature.

2.2. The Issues Committee shall solicit concerns from the retiree and surviving spouse communities for presentation to the Council. For those issues that cannot be resolved locally, they shall develop issue papers, in a background, issue, and recommendation(s) format, for presentation each year to the Council at its February meeting. The Council will select three to five issues for the Issues Committee to finalize for submission to the Secretary of the Navy's (SECNAV) Navy and Marine Corps Retiree Council (NMCRC). By 15 March, the Issues Committee shall present to the Chairman of the CAMLEJ MRC the finalized issue papers and a letter for his signature and submission to the SECNAV NMCRC.

Section 3: The Speakers Committee:

3.1. This Committee shall consist of no less than two and no more than five Council members, appointed by the Council Chairman, which will recruit and organize volunteers possessing varying military and other backgrounds to form a speakers Bureau for the purposes outlined in Article III, Sections 7, 10, and 13 of the Constitution. The Committee will: maintain a current roster of volunteer speakers annotated with each speaker's area(s) of expertise; advertise the capabilities of the Bureau base-wide to local commands, base schools, and veterans service organizations off base and other appropriate organizations. Arrange speaking engagements and obtain evaluations of speaker performance from organizations using this service. Monitor/critique speaker performance; and manage all other aspects of the Speaker Bureau Program.

Section 4: SECNAV NMCRC Representative Nomination Committee:

4.1. This Committee shall consist of no less than two and no more than four members to be appointed by the Council Chairman. Committee members are to review qualifications of prospective Council members and recommend nominations to the Council for selection by majority vote to represent the regional military retiree community as a member of the SECNAV NMCRC. This committee shall also have the responsibility to recommend to the NMCRC that a previously selected member be removed as our SECNAV NMCRC Representative for failure to satisfactorily work with the CAMLEJ MRC and the Military Retiree Community, or for conduct considered to render the representative to be unsuitable to continue to represent our community on the SECNAV NMCRC. If a Retiree Council Representative receives a two-thirds MCB CAMLEJ MRC vote for removal, the Chairman of the Council will brief the CG MCIEAST-MCB CAMLEJ; and upon approval will immediately advise the Commandant of the Marine Corps (MMSR-6).

4.2. The Nomination Committee will be activated at the direction of the Council Chairman with the goal of having a CAMLEJ MRC vote on the Representative no later than two calendar months before the designated deadline by MMSR-6 for submission of nominations. This allows the opportunity to brief the CG, MCIEAST-MCB CAMLEJ and a timely submission to MMSR-6. Any review for continuance in office will be called by the Council Chairman.

4.3. The military retiree selected to represent the regional military retiree community is not required to have previously served as a member of the CAMLEJ MRC. It is required that the individual selected become a member of the CAMLEJ MRC throughout his/her tenure as a Representative on the SECNAV NMCRC. This is to ensure the willingness and ability to interact with the Council and our military retiree community while serving on the SECNAV NMCRC.

4.4. The SECNAV NMCRC Representative is required to work with the CAMLEJ MRC, the local Veteran Service Organizations, and members at large of the regional military retiree community. He/she is to actively solicit input from our military retiree community, advise the SECNAV NMCRC on the issues and concerns of our community (even if not his/her opinion), and actively brief the appropriate organizations listed above after the annual SECNAV NMCRC meetings. The responsibility to keep the regional military retiree community abreast of actions and considerations by the SECNAV NMCRC is continuous.
