

In the midst of this, one day we heard of my brother's attempted side. I believe the cause was his painful position as leader narrators' strike, which had failed. My brother seemed to be to the fact that narrators would no longer be needed when ology progressed to the point of including sound. Since was a losing battle, the fact that he had to accept the lead strike must have been indescribably painful for him.
My brother's attempt to end the suffering of his over the household once again. I desperately wan happy e distract everyone. I hit upon the brother he had been living off h sound nothing
